Our Client Relationships

Our goal is to earn your trust and give you peace of mind.

We understand the importance of quality and responsiveness in all things, both big and small.

At Hershner Hunter, we practice law the way our clients do business: with the big picture in mind. We offer practical and result-oriented advice, helping our clients make sound and effective business decisions. Whether in litigation, strategic planning, or other matters, we understand that in business the most important thing often is the bottom line. That's why we focus on efficiency in how we provide services—helping our clients bring legal matters to a prompt and satisfactory conclusion, meeting their objectives, and saving them time and money.

Promptness is an obsession at Hershner Hunter. As a partner in our clients' efforts to keep up and get ahead in today's fast-paced business environment, it is critical that we deliver results in a timely manner. We invest in technology, systems, and procedures—and most importantly in people—all with an eye on facilitating prompt service. Our goal is to exceed our clients' expectations for both quality and efficiency.

But our success is not all about speed. We have the substantial experience to meet our clients' varied legal needs. The breadth and depth of that experience allows us to understand our clients' businesses, evaluate problems from their unique perspective, and contribute to achieving their goals.

Our People

Great service requires great people. We attract and retain the best, with pride in who we are and what we do.

Hershner Hunter recruits and retains attorneys and staff with outstanding academic and practical backgrounds. Most of our attorneys and staff have been with the firm for many years. They understand and are committed to our core values of integrity, professionalism, service, and teamwork. And they deliver on those values daily.

For the last 35 years, Hershner Hunter has been committed to the concept of specialization. Our attorneys and staff emphasize one primary area of law in their individual practices. This concentration allows the development of greater expertise than is possible with a general practice. It allows each attorney and staff member to contribute more value in providing services and to do it more efficiently. Within this model, we have encouraged select attorneys to develop as general legal counselors to businesses. These counselors can bring a broader cross-disciplinary perspective to a client's affairs, orchestrating planning, leading the team, and accessing the specialized expertise of others in the firm as needed.

Our Practice

Our model is simple: understand our clients' businesses, evaluate problems from their unique perspective, and contribute to achieving their goals.

We work to build trust and confidence in every client relationship. These qualities are critical to client satisfaction and peace of mind. We also understand the importance of access in that relationship. We are available: we answer the phone and return e-mail and voice mail promptly; we are conveniently located in downtown Eugene; and we go wherever we are needed.

To enhance our service, every Hershner Hunter client is given a contact attorney. This attorney is your personal client service contact within the firm and will facilitate on-going work, respond to emerging concerns, intake new matters, coordinate the work of other members of our team, and work to assure your satisfaction with the quality and promptness of our service.

Sound judgment. Business orientation. Experience. Personal attention. Thorough, prompt, and efficient service. Trust and peace of mind.

With more than 65 years of growth and progress, Hershner Hunter quietly but consistently advises many of the community's leading businesses and individuals on legal and related business matters.
